Arizona Voter Identification

List #1 – Photo ID

One (1) Needed with Voter's Picture, Name & Address, Residential or Mailing

- Arizona Driver License or ID (this can be the paper temp ID issued from MVD or Electronic/Digital version that can be downloaded, however it can NOT be a photo of the digital version)
- Tribal Identification
- Other US Federal, State or Local government-issued ID

List #2 – Non-Photo ID

(Two (2) Required with Voter's Name & an Address, Residential or Mailing

- Utility bill or bank statement
- an Arizona vehicle registration or insurance card
- Property tax bill
- Tribal ID (address not required on this item, but other item would need address)
- Official Election Material
- Other government-issued ID

NOTE: For Tribal ID: If voter only has Tribal ID even if there is no address, the voter will be allowed to vote a Provisional ballot, BUT voter DOES NOT have to return (not a conditional provisional)

List #3 – Hybrid of #1 & #2

(Two (2) Required - 1 Picture & Name and 1 from List #2 Voter's Name & an Address, Residential or Mailing

- Photo, name ID: AZ DL or ID, Passport or Military ID
- 1 from List #2: Voter Name and Address

NOTE: For Tribal ID: If voter has Tribal ID for List #2 item, even if there is no address, the voter will be allowed to vote a Provisional ballot, BUT voter DOES NOT have to return (not a conditional provisional)

Arizona Voter Identification

If Address on ID does not match the ePollbook:

- Voter is allowed to vote a Provisional Ballot
- County Recorder staff will confirm eligibility and confirm signature of the voter
- Voter DOES NOT need to return to show further ID
- Poll workers should provide a receipt for the Provisional Ballot so can check status after the Election.

If Voter has NO ID at all:

- Voter is allowed to vote a Conditional Provisional Ballot
- Voter MUST return to show ID, within 5 days with the County Recorder's office
- Poll workers should provide further information on where to return and further instructions on the receipt for the Provisional Ballot