PUBLIC ANNOUNCEMENT

Navajo Nation Human Rights Commission will be hosting Two Public Seminars on Knowing Your Rights about Funeral and Burial Services.

The Navajo Nation Human Rights Commission ("Commission") will host two seminars about funeral practices in border towns. With funerals being a major expense to Navajo families the Commission will address the following topics; Navajo Traditional funeral and burial practices, Contemporary modern funeral and burial practices, Funeral expenses and general cost guidelines, Dignity and Respect or "something not to talk about". Expert Navajo presenters will speak on these topics followed by an open dialogue with the audience on concerns about funeral and burial planning.

What: Know Your Rights about Funeral and Burial Services

When: May 16, 2017

Time: Starting at 9:00A.M.

Where: Culinary Arts and Hospitality Center at Navajo Technical University, Crownpoint, New Mexico

What: Know Your Rights about Funeral and Burial Services
