

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING BETWEEN THE NAVAJO NATION
ON BEHALF OF THE NAVAJO NATION HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION
AND THE CITY OF ALBUQUERQUE, NEW MEXICO
ON BEHALF OF THE HUMAN RIGHTS BOARD AND OFFICE OF CIVIL RIGHTS

SECTION I. PREAMBLE

This Memorandum of Understanding (“MOU”) is by and between the Navajo Nation, on behalf of the Navajo Nation Human Rights Commission (“COMMISSION”), pursuant to 2 N.N.C. § 922 and the City of Albuquerque (“CITY”) a municipal corporation and public agency in the State of New Mexico, located in Albuquerque, New Mexico, on behalf of the City of Albuquerque Human Rights Board (“HUMAN RIGHTS BOARD”) and the Office of Civil Rights (“OFFICE”), pursuant to Sections 11-3-1 through 11-3-99 (ROA 1994) (the Human Rights Ordinance) to address issues of discrimination against minorities, persons with disabilities and other protected classes.

Referring to the Navajo Nation government as a sovereign nation, the Navajo Nation Council by Resolution CO-40-06 established the COMMISSION in October 2006 after learning about the unfortunate incidents that have occurred in the border towns surrounding the Navajo Nation. The COMMISSION is authorized to serve as a clearinghouse entity to administratively address discriminatory actions against citizens of the Navajo Nation, and to interface with the local, state, and federal governments and with national and international human rights organizations.

Referring to the CITY as a local government in the State of New Mexico, the Albuquerque City Council adopted the Human Rights Ordinance and established the HUMAN RIGHTS BOARD in 1973. The CITY also reestablished the OFFICE in 2018. The CITY established both to investigate and advise on discrimination complaints, to protect and promote human rights, human dignity, and equal access and opportunities for all members of the Albuquerque community.

The civil, political, social, cultural and economic history between the United States, Navajos and other indigenous peoples is significant, complex and tragic. As a result of that history, indigenous peoples as well as other minorities have needlessly suffered from discrimination. While the majority of the people in the CITY and on the Navajo Nation do not tolerate racism, we must never forget the tragedies inflicted on Navajos by a minority in the community and ensure that the Navajo people’s stories are acknowledged and told in their words. Racism and discriminatory practices must be eliminated now and forever at every level of government and eventually in the hearts and minds of all peoples.

The COMMISSION unanimously passed a resolution on July 2, 2010, approving and adopting the public report entitled “Assessing Race Relations Between Navajos and Non-Navajos: A Review of Border Town Race Relations.”

The COMMISSION and the CITY accept that the Navajo Nation and the CITY are neighbors and that they rely on each other for many goods and services, including the treasures of Navajo culture and the economic benefit that are realized by the collective communities.

The COMMISSION and the CITY acknowledge that the world communities have made it their priorities to ensure that nation/states, local and national governments recognize that every human being has the right to life, liberty and the security of his/her person and that every person has the right to the protection of the law against abusive attacks upon his/her honor, his/her reputation, and his/her private and family life.

SECTION II. INTENT

The Navajo Nation and the CITY enter into this MOU voluntarily for the purpose of strengthening communication and coordinating services that promote healthy, positive community relations with all peoples visiting, residing or doing business within and around the CITY or on the Navajo Nation. The Navajo Nation and the CITY will assist in setting standards for healthy, positive community relations dealing with cultural diversity, fairness, integrity and respect to all peoples. The Navajo Nation and the CITY will encourage and promote mutual self-respect between all peoples through a variety of coordinated outreach and educational activities that support the mission of both organizations. Therefore, this MOU will provide guidance as the Navajo Nation and the CITY, through their respective COMMISSION, HUMAN RIGHTS BOARD, and OFFICE OF CIVIL RIGHTS, address race relations and issues associated with culturally diverse populations.

SECTION III. GENERAL PROVISIONS
